hello.
i install all ok but the program don't found my interface
the drivers install ok
someone can help me
thanks in advance
[/quote]

you should plug the cable in your usb on laptop or PC then plug the interface to a 12vdc to any vehicle to supply this 12vdc to the head the driver will be recognised in Devide Manager as Softing Vehndle interface "VAS5054A"

after cable is plug in & powered up the Driver show up here
